Make VDARE Foundation A Beneficiary Of Your Will

Remembering VDARE Foundation with a bequest from your estate will help sustain and strengthen patriotic immigration reform in years to come. Some of the advantages of creating a bequest include:

- A bequest costs you nothing now, yet gives you the satisfaction of knowing you have provided for VDARE Foundation in the future;
- You retain control of and use of your assets during your lifetime;
- You may modify your bequest if your circumstances change;
- Gifts to VDARE Foundation from your estate are exempt from federal estate taxes;
- If you tell VDARE Foundation of your plans, we will be able to thank and recognize you now, as well as make sure your intentions are honored.

You may make a bequest or gift through your estate by including a provision in your will or living trust, or by naming VDARE Foundation as a beneficiary of a retirement plan or life insurance policy. A bequest to VDARE Foundation can be made for a specific amount, for a percentage of your estate, or for all or a portion of what is left after you have made bequests to your family.

To make a gift to VDARE Foundation from your estate, you must sign a new will or living trust instrument, add a codicil to your present will, or make an amendment to your present trust instrument. Alternatively, you can designate VDARE Foundation as a beneficiary of a retirement plan or life insurance policy.

To do so, contact the retirement plan administrator or life insurance company and complete the appropriate beneficiary designation form.
